A blank sheet of graph paper with a grid pattern. The grid consists of small squares formed by thin lines. There are two thicker vertical lines running down the page, one near the left edge and one near the right edge, which divide the page into three columns. The paper has a light beige or cream color.

This image shows a single, blank page from a notebook. The page is ruled with horizontal blue lines and a vertical red margin line on the right side. The paper appears slightly aged or off-white. There are some faint smudges and marks on the page, particularly near the top edge where it might have been bound. The lighting is even, highlighting the texture of the paper and the color of the ink lines.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page shows the binding of the book, with some stitching or glue visible. The overall tone is a warm, off-white or light beige.
